

Vikrant Aggarwal
President

Vikrant brings with him more than 20 years of automotive and industrial experience, managing and growing successful global businesses. This expertise has been critical in leading Local Motors to achieve its customer-focused goals. Vikrant's extensive global experience – both living in and working with companies around the world – is helping to strengthen Local Motors' key efforts to increase the efficiency of internal processes, scale the company's customer base to global markets, enhance ongoing relationships, and lead the industry as a whole towards a brighter future.